++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Often windy with bands of rain moving east this weekend.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rain clearing the north-east, then clear spells and isolated showers, although showers soon becoming more frequent in the far south-west. Band of showers, some heavy, with gusty winds then affecting western areas of England, Wales and south-west Scotland overnight.

Saturday:
Rain, some heavy, continuing north and east, not clearing the far north-east until evening. Sunny spells and isolated showers following.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Changeable with showers, longer spells of rain, and some limited sunny/clear spells in-between. Often windy, with gales around southern and western coasts at times. Temperatures a little below average.
